Indicate by check mark if the registrant is submitting the Form 6-K in paper as permitted by Regulation S-T Rule 101(b)(7):

As previously reported on a Form 6-K furnished by Taboola.com Ltd. (“Taboola” or the “Company”) on April 8, 2022, the Company filed a motion with the Tel Aviv District Court Economic Department (the “Israeli court”) to extend the initial approval, issued by the Israeli court on November 16, 2021, of a program of up to $60,000,000, to be utilized, if so determined by its board of directors, in connection with a net issuance mechanism to satisfy tax withholding obligations related to equity-based compensation on behalf of its directors, officers and other employees and possible future share repurchases.

On May 19, 2022, the Israeli court approved the motion. The approval by the Israeli court is in effect through November 16, 2022. The Company expects to make successive requests to the Israeli court for similar approvals. A separate announcement would be made if the Company’s board of directors were to approve a share repurchase program.

Forward-Looking Statements

This Report on Form 6-K (the “Form 6-K”) contains forward-looking statements. All statements contained in this Form 6-K that do not relate to matters of historical fact should be considered forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding the Israeli court approval and net issuance mechanism. These forward-looking statements are based on management’s current expectations. The Company’s failure in whole or in part to obtain any subsequent request for approval from the Israeli court could prevent or reduce the Company’s ability to obtain the potential benefits of net issuance for itself, its employees and its shareholders. Forward-looking statements are neither promises nor guarantees, and involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other important factors that may cause our actual results, performance or achievements to be materially different from our expectations expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including without limitation the important factors discussed under Item 3.D. “Key Information - Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 20-F filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) on March 24, 2022 and in our other SEC filings. Any such forward-looking statements represent management’s estimates as of the date of this Form 6-K. While we may elect to update such forward-looking statements at some point in the future, we disclaim any obligation to do so, even if subsequent events cause our views to change, except as may be required by law. These forward-looking statements should not be relied upon as representing our views as of any date subsequent to the date of this Form 6-K.
